

Obituary

Nicholas DiViesti Sr., 81

Our beloved father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend passed away February 25, 2009 at the Portneuf Medical Center, in Pocatello, ID, surrounded by his loved ones.

Nick was born July 21, 1927 in Marlboro, New York, to Michael DiViesti, Sr. and Elizabeth Whisten DiViesti. He served his country and was honorably discharged from the United States Air Force December 19, 1951. He met and married Donna Mae Whiting, who brought three children into the marriage and together they had three of their own. They later divorced. He then met and married Nola T. Young DiViesti, she brought four children into the marriage.

Nick worked for J.R. Simplot for several years then went to work for Jack Pardee Construction as project supervisor. This job took him and Nola to Wyoming, Nevada and California. After retiring, he and Nola moved to Pingree, Idaho where they remained.

Nick loved the outdoors, he enjoyed hunting, fishing, camping, gardening and spending time with friends and family.

He was preceded in death by his wife; Nola, parents; sisters, Betty Boyette, Marguerite Feinstein and Theresa Anne Chapman; brother Alfred DiViesti; a stepson, William Kent Still; a stepdaughter, Gayla Renfro; brothers-in-law, Robert and John Young, Chris Schritter and Dennis Turner and one great grandson.

He is survived by his children, Tony (Helen) DiViesti, Steven DiViesti, Paulette Phillips, Nick (Shelly) DiViesti, Jr., Vickie (Mike) Hanrahan, Patricia (Mike) Martin, Terri (Jay) Hensley, and Pam Glover; brothers, Tony, Michael Jr., Gus, Dominic, and John; brother-in-law Earl (Shirley) Young, sisters, Victoria Colurciello, Rosemarie Santora, and Gloria Sullivan; sisters-in-law, Iva Jean Turner, Vera Schritter, Marva Barnes, R. Lee Young, Elaine Ehlers; and numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Memorial services will be held at a later date. Arrangements are under the direction of Hawker Funeral Home.
