

OBITUARY

Dorothy Mae Dugan 79

Dorothy Mae Dugan, 79, of Blackfoot, left her earthly body September 3, 2010, at her home surrounded by her family, following an extended battle with heart disease. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother.

She was born on September 1, 1931 in Sedalia, Missouri to Oliver Lee Virgie Mae Garber Moore. Her early years were spent in Missouri and when she was twelve her family moved to California, where she spent the rest of her youth.

In Dec of 1951 she married the love of her life and found great pleasure in raising her family as a military wife while Robert was serving his country. For the past 37 years the Dugans have called Blackfoot, Idaho home.

Dorothy was a member of the local B.P.O.E. as a Doe since 1991. She also volunteered with the Girl Scouts of America as a leader, co-leader, and served in a variety of other positions over the past 42 years. She and Robert, along with their family, also participate in the Blackfoot Christmas Tree Fantasy by donating a decorated tree for the past 28 years. Dorothy never met a stranger and had a love for life and music. She especially enjoyed dancing to her favorite Elvis song or snapping to the beat of her favorite country song.

Her family always came first and she had more than enough love for family and friends.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory, husband Robert, Daughters Dyana (Bill) Delaney, Sandra Lowrey, of Blackfoot, Mary Dugan of Ft. Meyers Florida and close friend, Charlie Cunningham, whom she considered a son. Grandchildren Melissa (Tony) Cortes, Robbie (Jen) Lowrey, Jessica (James) Winkler, Jeffery Lowrey, Alishia Delaney, and Timothy Lowrey, and Great Granddaughter Rachel Cortes.

A celebration of her life will be held on Wednesday, September 8, 2010 at 11:00am at the Local Elks Lodge. The family will meet with friends for one hour prior to the service. Services are under the direction of Hawker Funeral Home, 132 South Shilling, Blackfoot. Condolences may be sent to condolences@hawkerfuneralhome.com.
