

Obituary

Elva S. Larson, 88

Elva S. Larson, 88, of Blackfoot, Idaho, passed away Tuesday, February 2, 2010 at The Gables in Blackfoot.

Elva was born on June 12, 1921 in Weston, Idaho to Joseph and Nellie Glibert Smith. She attended school and played basketball in Weston, Idaho, moving to Preston after she got married, living there most of her life, until moving to Blackfoot.

On March 22, 1939, Elva married Theo Larson in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Together they had three children, Wayne, Carolyn and Suzanne.

Elva worked at the lunch counter at Hales Drug Store, and at Albertsons for many years. In her free time, she enjoyed crocheting and quilting.

Elva is survived by her son, Wayne (Liz) Larson of Blackfoot, Idaho; daughters, Carolyn (David) Berrett of Blackfoot, Idaho and Suzanne Larson of Seattle, Washington; five grandchildren; 9 great grandchildren; and 3 great great grandchildren.

Elva is preceded in death by her husband, Theo; brothers, Arvol, Reed, Glen, Ken and Clyde; sisters, Verda, Zenda and Edna; and two grandchildren, Joe and Wendy Gardner.

A funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. Monday, February 8, 2010 at Hawker Funeral Home, 132 South Shilling Avenue in Blackfoot. Family will meet with friends and relatives from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Sunday, February 7, 2010, and for one our prior to services at the funeral home. Interment will follow at the Grove City Cemetery. Condolences can be sent to the family at condolences@hawkerfuneralhome.com.