James Arlo Moss, 70

James Arlo Moss, 70, of Moreland passed away Tuesday, August 3, 2010 near the Blackfoot Reservoir.

He was born September 15, 1939 in Idaho Falls, Idaho the son of Arlo James and Ellen Marie Hunter Moss.

Jim was raised in Ririe graduating from Ririe High School. He then attended Ricks College prior to serving in the Central Atlantic States Mission. After returning from his mission he continued his education at Ricks College where he received an Associate Degree. He attended ISU for a short time and then transferred to BYU in Provo, Utah where he completed a Bachelor's Degree.

On August 1, 1963, he married Sharen Holley in the Idaho Falls LDS Temple. They had just celebrated their 47th anniversary.

After receiving his education at BYU, he moved to Ririe where he taught school and coached wrestling at Ririe High School for 6 years. His family then moved to Brawley, California where he taught school for two years. He then worked as a dental lab tech for 8 years in Brawley. He moved back to Idaho and worked for 6 years in the Upper Snake River Valley. During that time he went back to school to update his teaching credentials and in 1985 he returned once again to the Brawley area where he taught school for another 6 years. He moved to Moreland in 1991 and taught math at Snake River Junior High until he retired in 2005.

Jim was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and served as a stake missionary, Elder's Quorum President, Branch President, athletic director and home teacher.

Hunting and fishing were his passion and he had fished from Alaska to Mexico and everywhere in between. He also enjoyed traveling to visit his children and grandchildren through out the country, playing card games, telling jokes and socializing with people from every walk of life.

He is survived by his wife, Sharen of Moreland; sons, Shane (Darlene) of Minneapolis, MN, Mike (Dana) of Newark, TX, Gary (Alaine) of Honolulu, HI, Nathan of Pascoe, WA, Jimmie (Natalie) of Boise, ID, Cris (LeAnn) of Winslow, AZ; daughters, Diane (Joey) Acosta of Holtville, CA, Holly (Todd) Patterson of Brigham City, UT, Julie (Mike) Eilander of Haslet, TX, Crystal (Lance) Murdock of Winslow, Az; brother, Dick (Eldene) Moss of Tremonton, UT; sisters, Janet (Steve) Hurzeler of Idaho Falls, ID, Patty (Norman) Landon of Ririe, ID; 30 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, sister, Joann Wilding and a granddaughter Jordanne.

A funeral service will be held 11:00 a.m. Saturday, August 7, 2010 at the Moreland LDS Chapel with Bishop Mark Adams, conducting.

The family will meet with friends for one hour prior to the service at the church.

Interment will be in the Ririe Cemetery at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday.
