Vernone Mae Passmore, 80

Vernone Mae Passmore, 80, of Blackfoot, Idaho, passed away Tuesday, January 26, 2010 at the Bingham Memorial Skilled Nursing and Rehab Center.

Vernone was born February 27, 1929 to James Vernon Fowler and Beulah Audrey Cazer Fowler in Boise, Idaho. She lived in Pierce, Idaho and Priest River as a young child. Then spent time in the Boise area and the Mennan area, living most of her life in Blackfoot.

In June of 1948, Vernone married Robert Passmore in Boise, Idaho. Together they had four children.

Vernone attended the University of Idaho, minoring in Music. She taught school in Blackfoot for a short while, then spent her time with the horses on the farm. She enjoyed growing flowers, reading, horses and cats.

Vernone is survived by her daughter, Chris Passmore of Blackfoot, Idaho; and brothers, Ed Fowler of Connecticut and Gary Fowler of Washington.

Vernone is preceded in death by her husband, Robert; son, Talsian; daughters, Lucinda and Jennifer; and her sister, Pat.

A funeral service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, January 30, 2010 at the First Baptist Church, with Pastor Mark Fisk, officiating. Family is under the care of Hawker Funeral Home in Blackfoot.
