Clella Steffensen, 95

Clella Steffensen, 95, of Blackfoot, Idaho passed away Sunday, January 16, 2011 at Quinn Meadows Rehab and Care Center in Pocatello, Idaho.

Clella was born December 19, 1915 in Mink Creek, Idaho to Lars Walter Nelson and Lula Violet Olsen. She attended school at Thatcher Grade School and Centra High School.

On September 9, 1935 Clella married Ralph Steffensen in the Logan LDS Temple. Together they had two children, Jerry and Sandra. Other than two years in Seattle, Clella lived in Blackfoot since her marriage.

Clella was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, where she enjoyed attending Relief Society.

Clella worked at American Potato for 16 years. In her free time, she enjoyed arts, crafts and quilting. She was a member of the Arts & Crafts Club where she made many quilts that won awards at the fair. She loved to fish and was a member of the Current Events Club.

Clella is survived by her son, Jerry Wayne (Carol) Steffensen of Soda Springs, Idaho; brother, Bryce Nelson of Burley ; sisters, Opal (Max) Sherwood of Pocatello and Tennie May (Hugh) Farmer of Twin Falls; and six grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Ralph; daughter, Sandra Jean Robideux; parents; brothers, Thermo, Jay and Stanley; and sisters, Gwen, Margene and Sybil.

A funeral service will be held in Blackfoot at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, January 22, 2011, at the Hawker Funeral Home, 132 S. Shilling Ave. The family will meet with friends at the funeral home on Friday evening from 6-8 p.m. and again on Saturday for an hour prior to services. Interment will be in the Grove City Cemetery.
