

Obituary

Clive Van “George” Tissidimit, 60

Clive Van “George” Tissidimit, 60, of Fort Hall passed away Thursday, September 29, 2011 at his home.

He was born January 5, 1951 to Rose Vivian Snipe Coby and Charles Tissidimit Jr.

Clive attended school in Blackfoot, Idaho and Stewart Indian School in Carson, NV.

He was a member of the Native American Church.

Clive loved outdoor sports such as hunting, walking and jogging. Other interests include cattle ranching and farming, riding horses, playing bingo, singing and drumming, spending time at the casino and working on his scientific method to win the lottery. His world revolved around his grandchildren, Kim Jr., Jordan, Tsaily, Sinjin, Kiare, Antonia, Dakota, Javan and Michael; Keinan, Brailey, Syliss, Lathan, Juliann Tissidimit, Tiger Cesspooch, Ariana, Arion, Rueben, Traya Butler. He will always be remembered as brother, uncle, grandpa, and a crazy jokester.

Clive married Rosalinda “Dojhi” Osborne in 1980 and together they raised Chris, Carlee (Hodge), Kim Sr., Deland Jr. (Christel) and Otis (Laticia) Osborne. They divorced in 2004, but later reunited and became close partners. His nieces and nephews are Marlo, Lance (Carlie), Lyman (Veldina), Mardel “Chicky” (Jason Butler), LaMar “Beeper” Tissidimit.

During Clive’s life time his occupations included, a butcher at the Trading Post grocery store, a carpenter, a maintenance technician, a plumber, a process server, and security guard.

Clive is survived by; brother, Larry (Marianne) Tissidimit, his partner, Dojhi and numerous cousins, nieces, nephews and grandkids.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Rose Snipe Coby, father, Charles Tissidimit Jr., maternal grandparents, John E. Snipe and Jessie Boise Snipe, paternal grandparents, Charles Tissidimit Sr. and Mary Use Tissidimit as well as Kim Osborne, Sr.

Friends and family will meet at Larry Tissidimit’s house on East Ferry Butte Rd. beginning, Saturday, October 1, 2011 at 10 am.

A funeral service will be conducted at the residence beginning at 5:00 p.m. Saturday evening.

A traditional burial service will be held 2:00 p.m. at the Gibson Cemetery on Monday, October 3, 2011. Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Hawker Funeral Home, condolences may be sent to the family at condolences@hawkerfuneralhome.com.