

Obituary

Clayton Charles Young, 32

Clayton Charles Young, 32, of Blackfoot passed away, Monday, September 5, 2011 from injuries sustained in a car accident.

He was born July 19, 1979 in Blackfoot, Idaho the son of Randy and Linda Daley Young.

Clayton received his education in Blackfoot and graduated from Blackfoot High School.

He married Ly Doung and they were later divorced, but their greatest accomplishments were the birth of their two sons, Kenny (11) and Tommy (8).

He worked for Action Rooter and Young's Septic Service.

Clayton enjoyed playing pool, fishing, music and especially spending time with his boys.

Clayton is survived by his sons, Kenny and Tommy of Blackfoot; parents, Randy and Linda Young of Blackfoot; brothers, Casey of Blackfoot, Corey of Payette, and Chris of Blackfoot. He has also left Tania Alvarez who was becoming the next chapter in Clayton's life. He also leaves behind grandparents, Leland Dale and Betty Young of Blackfoot; many aunts and uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and countless friends and customers, we'll all miss you "Claydoe".

A graveside service will be held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, September 10, 2011 at the Riverside-Thomas Cemetery with Perry Hawker conducting. Family will meet with friends and relatives from 12:30 p.m. to 1:45 p.m. prior to services at Hawker Funeral Home, 132 South Shilling Avenue in Blackfoot.
